The report is correct concerning the DIL Trust. My client has agreed to participate. I am awaiting a third-party approval, which I expect shortly, so I can send you the formal response and be prepared to execute the AOC. The DIL Trust will have minor comments on the legal description of the DIL Trust in the AOC. I am out of my office, but following emails awaiting the approval, and hope to be able to forward the response overnight. Since we are near the end of your day, I am sending this now to indicate DIL Trust's intent to participate.

Subject: RM 11E

Hello. This morning Nanci and Jan Betts informed me that each of your clients are intending to sign the RM 11E AOC. That is really good news. To assure there was no misunderstanding, our letter requested that we hear from each company directly regarding their willingness to sign. Hearing from each party assures that EPA can rely on information and there are no misunderstandings. The lawyers can provide the notice. Upon hearing from each of you, I will modify the caption and Findings of Fact and email out the final, signature-ready AOC. Thank you.
